

PRESCHOOL NEWSLETTER

March 14, 2025

Dear Preschool Families,

This week the Sunflower teachers read a book about Saint Patrick. On Monday, the children made St. Patrick's Day cards for the seniors. The teachers talked about the Holy Trinity and each child made a Holy Trinity Cross. The children glued the symbols on the cross. They also colored a picture. On Thursday, the children Q-tip painted a rainbow and counted shamrocks in Spanish (uno, dos, tres treboles). The Sunflowers ended the week making their St. Patrick's Day hats for Monday's celebration.

The Buzzy Bee teachers introduced Saint Patrick, letter Bb and reviewed numbers. The children traced and wrote the letter. Each child stamp painted shamrocks. The journal page was about Saint Patrick. During religion, the teachers read "Jesus is God's Son" from our Seeds curriculum. They also did the activity "My Prayer Times and Places". The Spanish word of the week was San Patricio.

On Wednesday, we were not able to visit the seniors at Nazareth House due to the rain.

On Monday, the preschool will celebrate St. Patrick's Day. Please have your child wear green.

Parents, just a reminder, children are not to ring the doorbell or pull on the door. Please stand in front of the doorbell so that we can see you on the camera. When you ring the bell and we buzz you in, you have 5 seconds to open the door. Pull down on the handle and pull the door open.
