

PRESCHOOL NEWSLETTER

March 22, 2024

Dear Preschool Families,

We began our week celebrating St. Patrick's Day! A special visitor traveled all the way from Ireland to visit us! We were delighted to see Miss Molly. She read a story, danced to Irish music with the children and gave them each a pencil, jewel and a shamrock sticker. We also had special guests join us in our celebration (Mrs. Crowley, Mrs. Coons & Mrs. Horning). We had a great time!

This week the Sunflower teachers introduced the letter Ll and read the bible story "The True King". The children made a ladybug with the letter L cutout. They also made an Easter egg name basket. The children glued the egg cutouts with the letters of their name on the basket. On Wednesday, the children made a palm leaf by cutting on the lines.

The Buzzy Bee teachers introduced the letter Mm, number 18 and Spring. The children made a letter craft and collage. Each child painted a butterfly cutout. They also made a palm leaf. On Thursday, the children made a letter of the week puppet and the journal title was "In the spring we....". The Spanish word of the week was "Primavera". (Spring) On Tuesday, during garden, the children planted seeds.

On Thursday, during Grotto time, we talked about Palm Sunday and learned about the word "Hosanna", which means "Pray and Save Us". Together we sang, Easter songs and sang "Wave Your Palms" by Sunday School Buddies. As we listened to the song, we paraded back to class waving our palms.
